THOMAS JONES, Sergt. S. S., U. S. A.

No Paper Tuesday.
Our "boys" will observe the Fourth on tomorrow, consequently there will be no paper issued from this office Tuesday.

Wanted—A Cook.
Apply at the BULLETIN office immediately.

"Cheeky."
If anything peculiarly striking or remarkably interesting is observed in these columns this morning, it may be ascribed to the fact that the local editor is absent from the city.

Go to Jack's and try his ERLANGER, a delightful beverage.

Religious.
—Rev. Mr. Waller will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.
—Divine services, with the celebration of the Holy Communion, will be held at the Church of the Redeemer at 10:30 a. m., today. The Rev. Frank B. Gilbert, brother of the pastor, will officiate.

Notice.
All firemen who intend to join the Deltas will be furnished with cap and belt at their engine house.

Do not fail to attend the Knights of Pythias excursion tomorrow.

Election of Officers.
At a late meeting of the Knights of Pythias, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: C. C. Jno. H. Gosman; V. C. W. H. Howe; K. of R. S. T. J. Kert; Prelate, M. P. Fulton; M. of E. H. Hought; M. of F. Theo. Carrigan; M. at A. John D. Holmes.

Grenades.
1,000 yards grenades in all colors, worth 50 cents a yard, which I will sell for 10 cents a yard. D. HARTMAN.

To-Morrow.
We advise those who desire to spend a pleasant day to-morrow, to attend the excursion on the Eckert, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. The arrangements have all been completed, and we predict a good time for those who attend. Price of tickets: Gentlemen $1; ladies and children (over ten years of age) 50 cents.

Attention, Base Ballists.
Balls and bats at cost—the largest assortment ever brought to Cairo, which I will sell for the next thirty days at cost.

Excursion.
We are pleased to note that the city authorities have commenced using earthenware drainage tiles to replace the wooden drains which have rotted out in different parts of the city. Workmen are at present engaged in putting in a new sewer across Washington avenue at Ninth street, which, when completed, will prove of immense benefit to that whole neighborhood.

Improvements.
The Cairo Box & Basket Co. have lately had constructed a large and substantial engine house and drying house combined. It has been placed quite a distance from the main building, where by the danger from fire is greatly diminished.

Excursion Rates.
The Knights of Pythias have put the price of their excursion tickets at $1 for gentlemen and 50 cents for ladies and children, being good for both the day and evening excursions.

Something New.
A large assortment of ladies' suits, latest style, which I will sell cheap.

A Sacred Team.
A team belonging to a countryman, on yesterday became excited over a display of fireworks, broke away from their driver, and were having a "little bit of their own" when they were suddenly checked in their career by running against a fence, where they were secured. Beyond a few bruises to the driver and a few scratches to the horses, there was no damage.

Red Raspberries.
Families wanting above can be supplied by leaving their order with E. A. WHEELOCK & Co., 6-3-57. No. 77 Ohio Street.

Judge Baker Receiving.
Judge Baker has been almost continuously on the bench, during the past five years. On Friday he adjourned the Alexander Circuit Court, and will now be idle for two months. We have no doubt he will "recess" with much pleasure to himself. All his friends—and he has a whole host—will be glad to know that he has at last a season of rest.

KITZINGER—a most delicious beverage—at Jack's.

For Sale.
Sheriff Irvin commenced on Thursday the sale of land and lots for the delinquent taxes for the year 1874, but after selling each day one or two tracts adjourned the sale to accommodate those who desire to pay their taxes. The sale will, however, commence in earnest on Tuesday next, and we advise those who have not paid to call around and settle their taxes, for by so doing they will save themselves from cost and trouble.

Delicious PILSENER—at Louis Herbert's.

GRAND YOUTH OF JULY CELEBRATION!

JOHN SCHEEL, AHEAD OF ALL.
On Sunday Evening, July Fourth at Washington Garden.

Sacred Concert and Grand Illumination.
The Garden will be illuminated by five hundred colored lamps on a new principle never before witnessed at Cairo. After the concert a social dance will close the evening's entertainment. Concert commences at 8 o'clock. Admission, free.
All my friends and the public in general are respectfully invited to attend. Come one! Come all!

JOHN SCHEEL, Pres.
Attention, Deltas.
All members who propose to participate in the celebration at Murphysboro, Monday, July fifth, are hereby notified to be promptly on hand at Engine House in uniform at 6 a. m. By order of the company. M. J. McGAULY, Sec'y.

Our Festive Day.
The festivities and pleasures incident to the glorious Fourth, were commenced yesterday, will be continued during today and will "wind up" to-morrow, and those who can't have all the fun they want to that time, are certainly hard to please. We have heard of no accidents yet, but as the Fourth has scarcely begun there is plenty of time for the usual complement of broken noses, fingers shot off, etc.

Go to Louis Herbert's for PILSENER.
A large assortment of Alpaca Coats from $1.50 to $2.50, at Hartman's, corner Sixth and Commercial avenue.

Mocking Bird.
Jim Mallory is the lucky owner of a bird which was imported to him directly from the Sandwich Islands, and although Jim declares it is a mocking bird, those who have examined it and heard it sing, declare that it looks like a crow, sings like a crow, and are inclined to believe that it is a crow; but at any rate it is a fine looking bird, and although its accomplishments in the singing line are not very well developed, it is prized very highly by his owner.

Delicious CULMEACHER at Jack's.

A "Scrimmage."
Quite a scrimmage occurred yesterday afternoon near the corner of Fourteenth street and Commercial avenue, between two late daughters of Ham, on account of some remarks made by one against the other, wherein her honesty was impugned. They squared themselves, and after punching away awhile they clinched and commenced pulling hair and biting. There was quite a crowd present who made no efforts to part the combatants. They were, however, discovered by officers Cain & Sheehan, who arrested them and took them before Bross, who assessed a fine of $20 and costs against one and discharged the other.

Boys' Clothing.
I have just received a full line of boys' clothing—latest styles—which I will sell for one-fourth of manufacturer's prices. Come and see for yourselves at Hartman's.

Odd Fellows' Hall.
The Odd Fellows' Hall, which was considerably damaged by the late Eckhoff fire, is undergoing thorough repairs, and will be, when finished, one of the neatest lodge rooms in the State. The lodge have purchased a new carpet in which is worked all the emblems of the order, and have also ordered new and handsome chairs for the presiding officers. The improvements are expected to be completed during the present week.

Fun Ahead.
A great many of our citizens cannot get away to attend a day excursion, and for the benefit of such the Knights of Pythias have perfected arrangements for a grand evening excursion, leaving Cairo at 8 o'clock p. m., and returning at 12 o'clock. Holders of tickets to the day excursion have the benefit of both day and evening excursion—all for $1 for gents, ladies and children 50 cents.

PILSENER at Louis Herbert's.

The Celebration at Murphysboro.
Quite a number of people will, we understand, go on the excursion to Murphysboro. The arrangements have all been made. The Deltas will go as a company, and will take their engine. They will be accompanied by quite a number of the members of the Rough & Ready Company, and we have no doubt that they will succeed in winning the prize, as their engine is comparatively new and in splendid condition. The fare for the round trip has been placed at the low price of $1. Tickets can be obtained of His Honor, the Mayor, or of M. J. McGauley, the secretary of the company. The train leaves the Cairo & St. Louis Railroad depot at 7 o'clock, promptly.

Louis Herbert has PILSENER.

On Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, July 7th, 1875, I will sell the household and kitchen furniture, beds, bedding, and other articles belonging to the estate of Michael Murphy, deceased. Sale corner of Poplar and Division streets, Cairo, Ill.
R. FITZGERALD,
Guardian of the minor heirs of Michael Murphy, dec'd.

The Methodist Excursion.
The steamer T. F. Eckert, under the command of Capt. Irwin Dugan, left promptly yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock, with a large and select crowd of people on board. The boat arrived safely at its destination, when those on board disembarked and enjoyed themselves in rambling through the woods, enjoying their lunches beneath the shades of the mighty forest monarchs, and in other amusements. Returning, the boat arrived last evening and those on board were loud in their praises of the kind treatment they had received from the managers and officers of the boat. We are pleased to say that nothing happened to mar the pleasures of the day.

Lost.
On the Eckert excursion yesterday, a large black silk parasol, sword handle, with an ancient shield thereon. The finder will confer a great favor by leaving the same at this office or at John Major's.

Frank Movement Planned.
Mott, and his keepers, will not permit his claims that he is a real spiritual medium to be investigated; but means will be taken to investigate whether Mott and his showmen will or not. If something drops out of these evenings look out for the cry of an agonized spirit—a yell of pain and anger from the blue-beyond—inside the cabinet.

The Delta Fire Company Excursion to Murphysboro, on Monday, promises to be a big affair, over one hundred tickets having been sold up to 7 o'clock last evening. Tickets for the round trip only one dollar.

From Anna, Illinois.
From private intelligence received from Anna, we learn that the small pox is still raging there, and instead of abating, is, if anything, on the increase. It is fortunately confined to one locality and the city authorities have quarantined the same by having a fence built around it, and have imposed a fine of $25 on any one who enters the infected premises. They have the bathhouse disease thoroughly under control, and we trust that we will soon hear of its disappearance.

From the same source we learn that the wheat crop of Union county is nearly all harvested, and that the crop is much larger than for years. The fruit also looks remarkably well, although there will not be near a full crop.

The finest article of Salad Oil at Schult's drugstore.

Personal.
—Mr. J. W. Hartwell, State Attorney of Williamson county, called upon us yesterday, in company with Mr. G. W. Madison, an old type formerly of Washington Territory. Hartwell is all that Fancy pictured him—a jovial, big-hearted, intense Radical. He represents affairs in Williamson county as quiet and hopeful.

Mr. Brown, late editor of the Marion Democrat, was in the city lately, on his way to purchase printing material for his office at Marion. Mr. Brown has been a denouncer of the Ku-Klux of Williamson county, and is therefore under their displeasure. His life has been threatened, and he has probably been crushed out. A few days ago his printing materials were captured by men claiming to be acting under legal process. He has commenced suit, but will not, probably, start his paper again.

Don't fail to attend the excursion under the auspices of Ascalon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, next Monday. If you cannot attend in the day time be sure and go in the evening.

The celebrated Schlitz MILWAUKEE BEER at Jack's.

Home Personal.
—Judge Bross leaves this afternoon for St. Louis, where he has important business to transact.

City Treasurer Blake proposes to take a trip to his home in the East, during the last of the month.

Mr. J. C. Crowley, representing the salt works of Messrs. Halliday Brothers at St. John's, Illinois, is in the city visiting his numerous friends.

Mr. Thos. S. Coffey, of the firm of Coffey, Harrison & Co., of St. Louis, formerly of Cairo, is in the city, stopping at the Planters' House.

His Honor Mayor Winter is interesting himself for the benefit of the Cairo firemen, in the proposed celebration at Murphysboro, and will do all in his power to enable the boys to "carry off the horns" on that day.

S. S. Foster, of the U-rope-in circus of St. Louis, took a flying trip down here on business connected with the circus. We tried to interview him and ascertain when he intended exhibiting, but since being invested with so much importance he is not "get-at-a-ble."

Go to Hartman's for Blue Navy Flannel Coats—worth $6—selling for $2.50.

Hats and Flowers.
200 Ladies' Hats, latest style, all ready trimmed; also a large assortment of Artificial Flowers for trimming hats, which I will sell at one-half the whole sale price. The above are just from New York and are desirable patterns and styles.

Hotel Personal.
—C. J. Perry, of Trenton, Tenn., was registered at the Planters'.
—G. B. Hicks, of Trenton, Tenn., was registered at the Grand Central yesterday.

E. E. F. Rose and family of New Orleans, were registered at the St. Charles yesterday.

L. M. Flournoy, a prominent and influential citizen of Paducah, Ky., was at the St. Charles yesterday.

Edwin Corlis, the great tobacco man of Metropolis, Illinois, was in the city yesterday, and took his rations at the St. Charles.

A. C. Bartleson, a prominent merchant of Villa Ridge, was in the city yesterday and registered at the Grand Central.

J. B. Gast, of Cincinnati, O., N. T. Richmond of St. Louis, Mo., and a number of others, were at the St. Charles yesterday.

Miss Anna M. Doherty, of Anna, Mo., Kennedy, of the M. C. R. R. and Wm. Hanna, of Chicago, were at the Planters' yesterday.

Big reduction in prices of Feather Dusters, at Schult's drug store.

Large assortment of boys' and mens' linen and straw hats at one-half the original cost. Now is the time to buy bargains at Hartman's, corner Sixth and Commercial avenue.

The Fourth.
We have bottled all our patriotism for Monday next, on which day we shall, circumstances permitting, fly the eagle—the irreverent say—at Murphysboro. We have practiced the bird during the last week and on several days he has taken majestic flights from our attic windows. When we attempted to send him up from the second and third stories the outside world interrupted, and so we had to let him flow out of our pencil in the attic, and there take to himself wings.

Today is a very grand day, and might be the text for a patriotic sermon in which we will not indulge. Let it go. There are few in Cairo who seem to care for it, except the Deltas, the Turners, the Shooting Club, the Knights of Pythias, the Methodists, and a number of other people. By the way, it is said the Turners and the Shooters will have a big time to-day at their picnic, and we hope they may. We are for them and the Fourth of July.

GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS of all descriptions—the most complete assortment ever brought to Cairo—at cost for the next ten days. Drawers, Undershirts, white and colored shirts, Half Hose—in price 1 day competition.

D. HARTMAN.

Police Court.
BEFORE JUDGE BROSS.

—There was very little doing in police court yesterday. The first case on the docket was that of Clem Young, charged with larceny; adjudged guilty and bound over to circuit court in the sum of $75.

—Then came Martha Wright, arrested by LaHue, charged with using offensive and threatening language; fined $5 and costs, and in default of payment was sent to the lock-up for ten days.

—The next case was that of Emma Allen; same charge as last, and same disposal.

—The next case was that of Martha Wright and Ella Harris, on the charge of fighting; Harris was discharged and Wright was fined $20 and costs, in lieu of payment of which she was sent to the lock-up for 20 days.

BEFORE JUDGE BIRD.

—Hugh Fouke, arrested by Billingsly on the charge of assaulting and striking. The evidence being insufficient to convict, the prisoner was discharged.

—The next case was that of Caroline Stairs, charged with using abusive language; arrested by officer LaHue. She was adjudged guilty and fined $5 and costs, which she paid.

The Murphysboro Excursion.

The Delta City Fire Company, with their friends and guests, will leave the depot of the Cairo & St. Louis narrow gauge railroad to-morrow morning, punctually at 7 o'clock, by special train for Murphysboro to attend the great firemen's tournament to be held there. The company succeeded in getting the fare reduced to the low sum of one dollar for the round trip, thereby bringing it within the reach of everybody. The Delta City Cornet band goes along. It is expected to be the largest gathering of people ever assembled in Southern Illinois, over twelve special trains having been engaged to run on the city along the line of the road from St. Louis and Cairo; also from Centralia down and from Anna up on the I. C. R. R.

The grounds selected are beautiful and picturesque; the dancing accommodations are ample for fully 500 persons to dance on the floor at once. Besides this there will be a variety of other amusements, and a grand display of fireworks in the evening, so that persons who go can rest assured of passing a very pleasant day. The train will leave Murphysboro for Cairo at 7 p. m. All persons desirous of going are requested to procure their tickets before Monday morning, so as to prevent confusion, and have the proper accommodations in the way of cars. Tickets are for sale by M. J. McGauley, Secretary Delta Fire Co., Wm. T. Beerwart, Assistant Chief Fire Department, and at the Mayor's office, corner Seventh street and Commercial avenue.
